"To night, no idle nondescript lavs waste The fairy and yet placid bower of faste; No story, piled with dark and cumbrous fate, And words that stagger under their own weight; But one of silent grandour-simply said, As though it were awakened from the dead! It is a tale made beautiful by years;-Of pure old Roman sorrow-old in tears ! And those you shed o'er it, in childhood, may Still fall-and fall-for sweet Virginia."

The Forest City Democrat, a leading abolition paper of Ohio, has a long article headed the "Perils of the day and the duties of the day," in which it takes strong ground against the administration for upholding with such inflexibility the principles of the Baltimore platform. It declares as a very grave offence: "we believe, and declare the administration to be in favor of the upholding and extension of slavery." The Freesoilers understand who their friends are better than anybody else, and they take ever opportunity of denouncing the administration for its pro-slavery proclivities. And yet there are persons in the South trying to to fix upon the administration a wish to sustain

CITY PROPERTY AT AUCTION. ON SATURDAY, THE 24TH DAY OF DE-CEMBER, 1853, at the Court House in Nushville, at 11 o'clock, will be sold at public sale to the highest bidder, unless previously sold at private sale, on a credit of one and two years, without interest, the following REAL ESTATE, situated in Nashville and South Nashville—viz: the

THREE STORY BRICK HOUSE, Fronting on Cherry street with Lot No. 52, 26 feet front, running back 50 feet to an alley, now occupied on the lower floor by Drs. Winston & Jones, and the third floor by the Sons of Tomperance.

This house is substantially built, has one of the best cellars (eight feet deep) in the city, coal vault attached, and stone pavements. Several rooms in it have been lately plastered, painted and papered, and it rents this year for $750.

ALSO. A BRICK DWELLING HOUSE, With Lot No. 74 on Cedar street, next to the Catholic Church, 28 feet front, running back 105 feet to an alley—now occu-pied by Dr. Thos. Wells.

This house is one of the best Suilt in Nashville; the stone, brick, and carpenter's work being of the first order, and the style modern and in good taste—it has nine rooms, most of them large, besides halls, kitchen, servant's rooms, smoke house, stable, and a hydraut. It has this year been thoroughly drained by an effectual rock drain sunk two feet below the basement floor by Wm. Haslam, with a written guarantse from him invariant it from being troubled by wa-ter or dampness during his life time. It has been this year thoroughly repaired, and the first and second stories hand-somely papered and painted, as well as all of the out side work. ALSO, FOUR LOTS IN SOUTH NASHVILLE,

Two fronting on Cherry street 30 feet each, running back 188 15 feet to a 10 foot alley, known as Lots No. 5 and 6, and the next but two to the brick store belonging to Isaac Paul; and two fronting on "College street extended" 30 feet each, running back 138 15 feet to a 10 foot alley, known as lots A and B next to Mr. Meacham's residence.
